

M. A. Economics

After the completion of their post graduation in Economics, the students will be able to

- Assess the existing knowledge, concepts, techniques, and methodology of Economics.
- Identify major issues and approaches to the study of Economics.
- Understand importance of the subject in day-to-day life.
- Analyze the implications of the Union annual budget in the life of people.
- Evaluate the project and outcome of five year plans of the Union govt.
- Critically examine taxation and its impact on people's livelihood and on economy.
- Get acquainted with various Economics viz. agricultural, industrial, international, growth and development and so on.